Content

		_	_
1	$T_{\alpha\alpha}$	1-	7
	Tas	ĸ	٦,

1.1 UWC 2.0 system layered architecture
1.1.1 Demonstration by layered architecture design	2
1.1.2 User Interface description	2
1.1.3 Data storage description	3
1.2 Task assignment module - Component Diagram

1 Task 3

1.1 UWC 2.0 system layered architecture

1.1.1 Demonstration by layered architecture design

User Interface	Calender-based user interface Personal account with information about MCPs and vehicles
Configuration services	Account Management Application Management
Application functionalities	MCPs and vehicles management Janitors and Collectors management Task request and assignment management
System Utilities	Logging and monitoring Search Receiving and sending task information	Interfacing Check availability
Database system	Managing d	ata

Figure 1. Layered Architecture Diagram

1.1.2 User Interface description:

User interface will comprises of:

- Account/Login on the top left
- Language choice on the top right
- Five buttons for five choices in the middle of the screen including:
 - + A homepage button
 - + A button to show calendar
 - + A button to show assignment
 - + A button to show track
 - + A button to show messages
- Underneath the buttons will be information about the group, information about the system and contact information.
- The main information for viewing will be the calendar which would highlight the date of transportation and assignment.

1.1.3 Data storage description

1.2 Task assignment module - Component Diagram

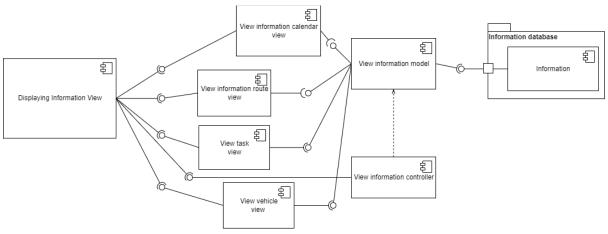

Figure 2. Displaying Information Component Diagram

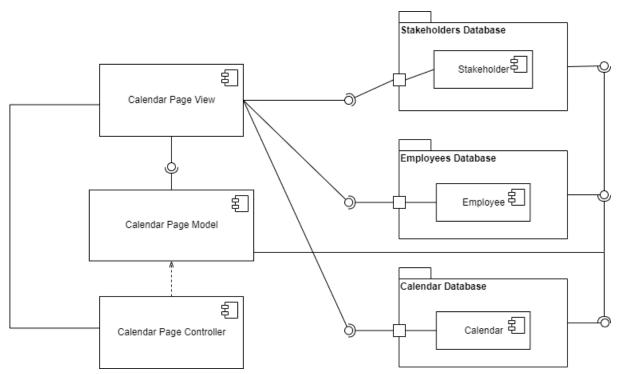

Figure 3. Changing Calendar Component Diagram

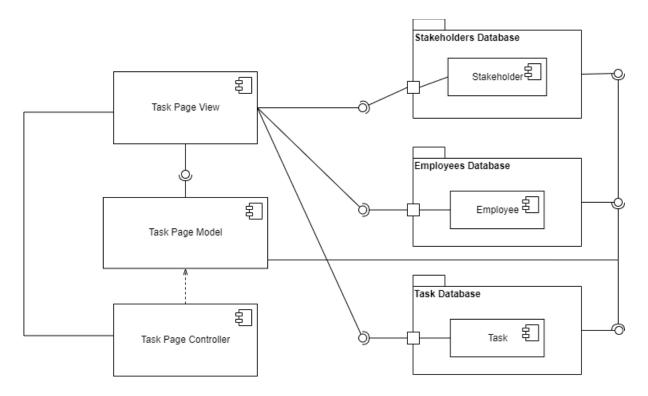

Figure 4. Assigning Task Component Diagram

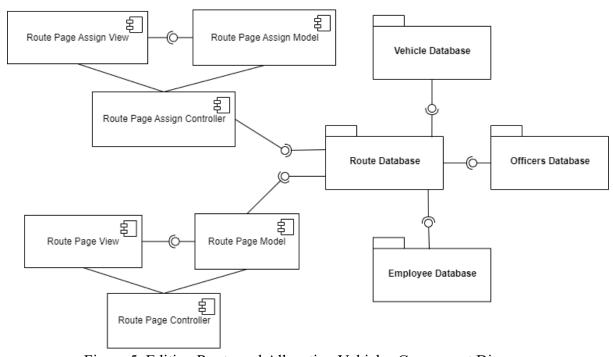

Figure 5. Editing Route and Allocating Vehicles Component Diagram

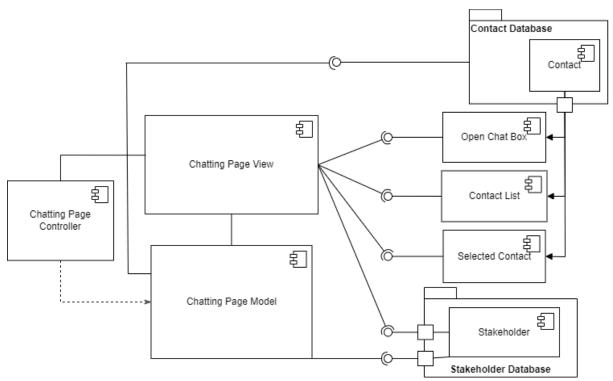

Figure 6. Real-time Chatting Functionality Component Diagram

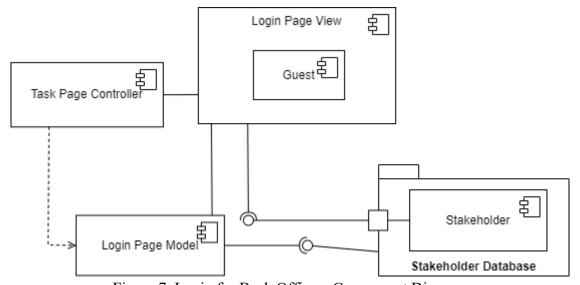

Figure 7. Login for Back Officers Component Diagram

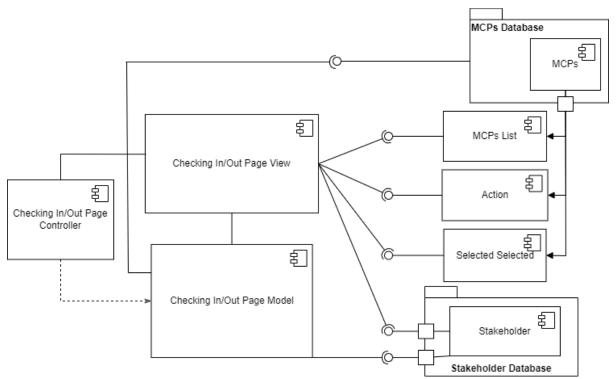

Figure 8. Check-in and Check-out for Collectors and Janitors Component Diagram